

IN THE COURT OF DISTRICT JUDGE-6,
NAGPUR.

M. C. A. No. 10/2023

South East Central Railway, Bilaspur Zone, Nagpur.

...Vs....

M/s Neco Ceramics Ltd. and Ors.

ORDER BELOW EXH. 9
(Passed on 29.04.2026)

1. Respondent No.1 filed this application for issuing directions to appellant to file complete paper book containing trial court record including documents relied by the parties. If the appellant fails to comply with this direction appeal may be dismissed for non compliance of the order. Learned counsel appellant submitted that complete documents which were before the trial court are not filed on record. He prayed for issuance of direction to the appellant.
2. Learned Counsel for appellant submitted that all the necessary documents which are required for decision of the appeal are filed with the paper book. Appeal is of 2023 and it is fixed for argument since long and the respondent No.1 in order to prolong the matter filed this application. He prayed for rejection of the application.
3. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 submitted that all the documents are filed on record and respondent No.1 has not specifically stated which documents is not with the paper book. She submitted that matter may be heard and disposed off as early as possible.

4. I perused the application and say of other side on record. In the application which document is not filed this fact is not mentioned. The case is fixed for argument since 07/10/2023. Counsel for appellant and respondent No.2 have already argued the matter. Thereafter the respondent No.1 filed this application for direction to produce document without mentioning the document which is not on record. The application does not appear to be bonafide. Hence, deserves to be rejected. So I pass the following order.

ORDER

1. Application (Exh.9) stands rejected.

Nagpur.
Dt. 29.04.2026.

(M. S. Ganorkar)
District Judge-6, Nagpur.