Order below Exh.1
(Date: 18th March 2026)

1. This is an application for issuance of directions as applicants/accused be released on bail, U/Section 483 of the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita. Applicants/accused booked in Crime No.267 of 2026, for the offences punishable U/Sections 3, 5(1), 25, 27 Arms Act and Section 135 of Maharashtra Police Act.
2. Perused the application along with documents annexed here with and say/report of Investigating Officer/APP. Heard both the sides at length.
3. In the light of this facts emerged, submissions by the parties and material on the record, the following points arise for determination before this Court. The said points and the findings thereon which follow the reasons as:

Point For Determination.

Sr. No.	Point	Finding
1.	Whether the applicants/accused made out the case as to issuance of direction as to be released on bail, in the given set of facts?	...Yes.
2.	What order?	...Application Allowed as per final order.

REASONSAs to the point no.1:

4. The applicant filed this application for grant of bail. As per the case of the prosecution story it is alleged that the applicant is accused No.2 in crime No.267 of 2026 dated 19/02/2026 registered at police station Kalmana for the offence punishable 3, 5(1), 25, 27 Arms Act and Section 135 of Maharashtra Police Act and accordingly applicant arrested by police.
5. The applicant submitted that he has been falsely implicated in this crime. He is innocent and on the basis of confessional statement he made accused in the said crime. The investigation has been completed and weapon is seized. Accused is in custody since 27/02/2025. If the applicant released on bail, he is ready to abide by all conditions and will not tamper with the evidence and witnesses. He prayed for grant of bail.
6. Investigation officer opposed the application on the ground that the applicant is having criminal antecedents. The applicant has been brought sword for quarrel. He has no fear of law. If released on bail he may pressurize witnesses. He prayed for rejection of the application.

7. Learned Counsel for applicant submitted that charges against all the accused is Arms Act. No criminal antecedent against the applicant. The applicant is in custody since the arrest. His custodial interrogation is not necessary. The investigation is completed. If the applicant released on bail, he is ready to abide all conditions. Hence, he be released on bail.
8. Learned APP opposed the application stating that in FIR role of the applicant is specifically given. The offence is serious in nature. There are criminal antecedents against the applicant. If the applicant is released on bail, he may repeat such offence in future. He prayed for rejection of the application.
9. After perusal of FIR it appears that applicant is in custody since his arrest. The weapon seized from the accused. The applicant had not used the said weapon for assaulting to informant. Prima facie his involvement in crime under Section 3, 5(1), 25, 27 is not coming on record. No prima facie evidence placed on record by the prosecution that there is involvement of the accused. The applicant is having criminal antecedents, but for that reason he cannot be detained in custody for indefinite period. The accused is in jail from the arrest. If the applicant is ready to abide by all condition if released on bail. In such circumstances in my view on imposing suitable conditions he is entitled for bail. Consequently, proceed to pass following order.

ORDER
