2. Perused the application along with documents annexed here with and say/report of Investigating Officer/APP. Heard both the sides at length.
3. In the light of this facts emerged, submissions by the parties and material on the record, the following points arise for determination before this Court. The said points and the findings thereon which follow the reasons as:

Point For Determination.

Sr. No.	Point	Finding
1.	Whether the applicant/accused made out the case as to issuance of direction as to be released on bail, in the given set of facts?	...Yes.
2.	What order?	...Application allowed as per final order.

REASONSAs to the point no.1:

4. The applicant filed this application for grant of bail. He was arrested by Khaparkheda police station on 07/02/2026 in connection with crime No.60 of 2026. As per the case of the prosecution it is alleged that on 06/02/2026 the quarrel took place between accused and complainant on the count of talking of girl friend of Jangali Ivrate. The accused stabbed injury by knife on the head of complainant. Therefore, the complainant lodged report to the police station. The accused arrested, weapon seized, prepared seizure panchnama and thereafter registered the crime.
5. The applicant submitted that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present crime and the applicant is innocent. The applicant having no concern with the fact and circumstances of the present complainant. No recovery or material has been found from the possession of applicant. He is ready to abide by all conditions if released on bail. Hence, prayed for grant of bail.
6. Learned Investigation officer opposed the application on the ground that the applicant is habitual offender. The offence is serious. The weapon is seized from the possession of accused. If released on bail he will commit similar offence and tamper with the evidence and witnesses. He prayed for rejection of the application.

7. Learned Counsel for applicant submitted that in FIR no specific role is attributed to the applicant. The charges against all the accused are of attempt of murder, but injury certificate is not placed on record. The applicant is in custody since one and half months. His custodial interrogation is not necessary. The applicant is ready to abide by all conditions if released on bail. Hence, prayed for grant of bail.
8. Learned APP opposed the application stating that in FIR role of the applicant is specifically given. The offence is serious in nature. One offence is for attempt to commit murder. If the applicant is released on bail, he may repeat such offence in future. He prayed for rejection of the application.
9. After perusal of record and case diary it appears that the actual role is not given in FIR. As per FIR he was present along with other accused. He did not used the weapon to assault the injured. The applicant is in custody since last about one and half months. His custodial interrogation is not necessary. In such circumstances in my view on imposing suitable conditions the applicant is entitled for bail. Consequently, proceed to pass following order.
