1.	Whether the applicant/accused made out the case as to issuance of direction as to be released on bail, in the given set of facts?	...Yes.
2.	What order?	...Application Allowed as per final order.

REASONS

As to the point no.1:

4. It is case of the applicant that he has been falsely implicated in the said crime and since 30/01/2026 is in jail. It is alleged that on 30/01/2026 at about 16 : 37 hours the accused person found in suspicious manner, therefore, police took search found 5 kg Ganja in possession of the accused seized by the police in presence of panch, prepared panchnama, arrested the accused and thereafter, registered the offence under NDPS Act.
5. The applicant further submitted that the applicant falsely implicated in this crime. The quantity of Ganja 5 kg seized from the possession of accused is not commercial quantity and rigor of Section 37 of the NDPS Act is not applicable. The applicant is ready to abide by all condition if released on bail. Hence, prayed that application be allowed.
6. The Investigating officer opposed the application on the ground that the offence is serious and the investigating is not completed and if the applicant released on bail, he will tamper with the evidence and witnesses. The contraband Ganja seized from the accused is used for selling purpose. Hence, prayed that the application be rejected.

7. Learned Counsel for applicant submitted that applicant is arrested on the basis of contraband seized from his possession Ganja weighing 5 kg which is below the commercial quantity and rigor of Section 37 of the NDPS Act is not applicable. The accused is in custody since 30/01/2026. Hence, prayed for grant of bail.
8. Learned APP argued that 5 kg Ganja was seized from the accused is used for selling purpose and the offence is serious. If the applicant is released on bail he may abscond. Hence, he prayed for rejection of application.
9. As per police accused found in possession of contraband from accused the quantity of Ganja is 5 kg which is well below the commercial quantity and rigor of Section 37 of the NDPS Act is not applicable. No criminal antecedents pending against the applicant and the applicant is ready to abide by all conditions as imposed by the Court. The applicant is in custody since last 60 days. Hence, in my view the applicant is entitled for bail on stringent conditions. Consequently, proceed to pass following order.
