

Order below Ex. 10
(Dated 22nd September, 2015)

This is application for grant of permission to file objection moved by respondents. It is contested by applicant.

02} Heard.

03} It is basic grudge of respondents that applicant has claimed interim maintenance twice in main application under sec. 12 of Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act and by way of separate application. There is no bar under the Act for filing separate application. Contrary sec. 23 of the Act speaks that without moving this application applicant can claim interim maintenance. Therefore I do not find merit in application. Accordingly, it is disposed off.
