

RCC No. 265/2008

Order below Ex. 86
(Dated 18th August, 2015)

Accused no. 1 moved this application for permanent exemption under sec. 205 of Code of Criminal Procedure. It is contested by complainant.

2] Heard.

3] Record shows that complainant was required to take steps every time for securing presence of accused no. 1. He is appearing in some other case does not mean he is immuned from attending this case. The grounds mentioned in application are not just. Moreover for want of presence of accused complainant could not proceed for evidence before charge. Therefore, application is devoid of merit. Accordingly, it is rejected.
