

ORDER BELOW EXH.1

(Passed on 24/04/2025)

This matter was for order on the application filed by the judgment debtor yesterday. At 05.00 p.m., Adv. Shri. Humne along with judgment debtor appeared in the court and requested this court to keep the matter today as he wanted to show the court some new documents as regards the orders from the Parshivni Court. The matter is kept today. Adv. Shri. Humne and judgment debtor appeared in the matter. Adv. Humne argued the matter but he has not filed any document of the Parshivni Court as submitted by him yesterday. At this time of dictation, Adv. Shri. Humne interrupted the order and submitted that he is having the documents and he is going to file it right now.

Adv. Humne argued the matter again and filed some judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court and Hon'ble Bombay High Court. Those judgments are taken on record. Hence, this matter was for order yesterday as requested by Adv. Shri. Humne. It is kept on today for filing the documents. Hence, considering these above circumstances, keep the matter for order. Parties to take note that this court is not going to hear any further arguments as the matter is thoroughly argument for more than 3 hours at last date and today itself. Keep the matter for order on 28.04.2025
