

MHNG130000762023

R.C.S. No. 7/2023
Bablu Vs. Ashok & Oths.

Order below Exh. 19.
(Passed on 03/11/2023)

The present application is filed by defendant No. 1 for permission to file written-statement. The defendant No. 1 stated that, he could not collect the necessary documents and information about the suit property he failed to file written-statement within limitation. The plaintiff filed reply and strongly opposed to the present application on the ground, defendant No. 1 not explained the delay properly. Heard both sides advocates. The grounds mentioned in the application is deemed to be bonafide. It is a settled principle of law that, the equal opportunity be given to both parties. The written-statement of defendant is necessary on record for determining the real controversy between the parties. Hence, the application is allowed. The no written-statement order passed on 19/06/2023 against the defendant No. 1 is hereby set aside on costs of Rs.200/-.

Ramtek
Date :- 03/11/2023.

Sd/-
(H. S. Satpute)
Jt. Civil Judge Junior Division, Ramtek.