ORDER BELOW EXH. 01

This application has been filed by the applicant to return his mobile to him under section 503 of the B.N.S.S. 2023.

2. Heard learned APP for the State and Learned Advocate of the Applicant.

3. The applicant in the application submitted that, he is owner of Mobile VIVO Y2961126 GB Blue colour bearing IMEI NO. 86077907298558 and 86077907298559. Police have registered Crime No. 220/2026 against the applicant under section 12 of Maharashtra Prevention of Gambling Act. The applicant filed verified copy of mobile bill which shows that he is the owner of the seized mobile. Applicant further submitted that, he will not sell, change and will not disposed off the said mobile. He will produce the said mobile before the Court when directed and required for the trial of the case and will abide all terms and conditions if imposed by the Court.

4. The learned APP filed her say on application and opposed the application on the ground that accused is habitual of doing such crime. If mobile is relied on Suprutnama, accused may used it to do similar act again without fear of law. I.O. filed his say and also opposed the application.

5. Perused the application and the documents filed along with it. From the documents, the applicant appears to be the owner of the seized mobile. Therefore, no purpose would be served in keeping the seized mobile lying in the police station without sufficient reason. The possibility of the damage to the property cannot be ruled out, if kept lying in the police station. The trial would not be concluded shortly.

6. Considering the nature of the seized property, its protection, guarding and safe custody are not practicable. Looking into the nature of the seized property, it may be degenerated or may lose its worth value. As the applicant has shown his ownership over the seized property, he is entitled to the possession of the same. Hence, I pass the following order.
