

L.A.R. No. 200101/2003
Tulshiram Pedolia
Vs.
State of Maharashtra & Ors.

ORDER BELOW EXH. 51
(Passed on 08.05.2026)

The instant application is filed by the applicants for permission to argue the matter.

2. It is contended by the applicants that, they desired to point out certain vital aspects that are important for the proper and final adjudication of the matter. Hence, it is urged to grant the permission for arguing the matter on certain points.

3. The application is opposed by the counsel Shri. Wandile for non-applicant No. 3 with the contention that already argument is advanced at length.

4. Heard both sides at length. Perused the record. It appears that, both sides have argued the matter and the matter was fixed for judgment. However, the learned counsel for the applicant submitted that certain material points remained to be argued. Considering the said submissions, and to have an opportunity and for proper adjudication of the matter, permission to advance further argument needs to be granted. No prejudice would cause to the other side as other side is having every opportunity to rebut the points to be argued. In the result, I pass the following order.

ORDER

1. The application stands allowed.
2. The Learned counsel for the applicants is permitted to advance further arguments.
