

ORDER BELOW EXH. 17

Balnath V/s Gangubai

Read the application and say filed by plaintiff. Perused record. Heard both the Counsels.

This is a suit filed for injunction simplicator. Wherein application for condonation of delay caused to file, written statement is filed.

It is submitted that, some material documents were awaited and therefore, written statement could not be filed within time. Hence, the present application.

Application is resisted by filing say on behalf of plaintiff. It is submitted that, the grounds mentioned in the application are not sufficient for condonation of delay. Present application is filed for prolonging the trial only and lastly prayed to reject the application.

Perusal of the record shows that, one suit bearing R.C.S. No. 16/2006 was came to be filed, in respect of suit property. Therefore, reasons shown by the defendants appears to be well founded. Hence, I am inclined to allow the application and in result following order is passed.
