

ORDER BELOW EXH.1 IN CRI.M.A. NO.61/2026

The applicant has filed application under section 100 of BNSS.

2. After argument of Ld advocate for applicant notices were issued to respondent no.1 to 2 to remain present in the Court with respondent no.4 (daughter of respondent no.1 and 2, wife of applicant). Accordingly respondents appeared in the Court. Respondent no.4 filed her affidavit stating that she wants to reside with respondent no.1 to 3 and she is not confined by her parents.

3. From the application prima facie it appears that the age of respondent no.4 is 19 years as stated by the applicant. It means that respondent no.4 is major. Therefore, respondent no.4 has every right to decide, whether she wants to reside with her parents or the applicant. Moreover, being with own parents does not amount itself that she is wrongfully confined and the said confinement amounts to an offence. The evidence led by the applicant is not sufficient to believe that the respondent forcefully took respondent no.4 and wrongfully confined her. Therefore, I am not inclined to grant this application. Hence, the order.

ORDER

1. The application is rejected.
