

R.C.S. No. 42/2025
Rajnanda Vishwasrao Aaher
Vs.
Ramhari Ramchandra Aaher & Ors.

Order Below Exh.27.

This is an application filed by the plaintiff and thereby prayed that permission be granted for filing of the documents and the same be exhibited.

2. Per contra the defendants prayed for the appropriate order.
3. Heard both sides at length. Perused the record. It is the contention of the plaintiff that she wants to file some documents on record and the same be exhibited. While the defendants prayed for appropriate order. In order to decide the real controversy between the parties, it is necessary to allow the production of document. But so far as the question of exhibiting the documents is concern then the photographs cannot be exhibited and the plaintiff has to follow the procedure provided in the Evidence Act. Hence, I pass the following order;

ORDER

1. Production of document is allowed.
2. Prayer for exhibiting the document is rejected.
