ORDER BELOW EXH.17

(17.08.2026)

Defendants have filed the present application for grant of time to file written statement / reply on record.

2. Perused application, say filed by the plaintiff.
3. Heard both the sides.
4. Ld. Advocate for the defendant has submitted that, some material information and documents are yet to be collected from the defendant. Therefore, written statement and reply could not be filed today. Hence, he prayed for grant of time to file written statement/reply on record.
5. On the other hand, Ld. Advocate for the plaintiff has opposed the present application and submitted that despite sufficient opportunity defendant has not filed their reply/say. Hence, their application be rejected with cost.
6. I have gone through the application and say. Heard both the sides. Considering the reason stated by the defendant, and in order to decide the cause on merit, one more opportunity needs to be granted to the defendants for filing their written statement/reply on record. With these observations and in the interest of justice, I pass the following order :-
