

Order below Exh.1 R.C.S. No. 100/2022

Perused record. On perusal of record it reveals that plaintiff filed an application vide Exh.5 for want of temporary injunction against defendant. Record further shows that on 16/09/2022 defendant Nos. 1 & 2 have filed written statement vide Exh. 19 and on 03/11/2022 defendant No. 3 has filed written statement vide Exh. 21 on record. Perusal of record further shows that, since long matter is kept for hearing on exh.5. Despite of giving several opportunities to the parties they failed to argue on Exh.5. Considering the same I proceeded further to frame the issues, by keeping the present application to be decided along with the suit. Parties are at liberty to press the application in the midway if they so desire.

Date-12/09/2025.
