ORDER BELOW EXH. No.20.

Today the case is fixed for hearing on Exh. 5. However defendants filed application Exh. 20 and prayed adjournment for argument. The adjournment sought on the ground that, the defendant is ill and her daughter has delivered a baby. Further, according to the defendants their time exhausted in the transfer proceeding. This application opposed by plaintiff on the ground that, the defendants had sufficient time and they have not given say on Exh. 5.

Considered the submissions. On 23rd September 2025 defendants are duly served with the summons and notice. That is evident from bailiff report. The defendants had opportunity to file written statement as well as say to application Exh. 5 but they have not filed. Under this circumstances adjournment for argument on application Exh. 5 is not justified. Hence, the following order-
