

ORDER BELOW EXH.1

The present application is filed by the plaintiff seeking adjournment on the ground that family members of the plaintiff are not physically fit. Adv. for defendant No.2 strongly objected the application by filing say over the back leaf of the application. Perused the record. The present suit is filed on 08-04-2023 which relating to declaration and permanent injunction. On 24-03-2015, the issues have been framed and thereafter matter was posted for the evidence of plaintiff. Record shows that the application of the plaintiff filed below Exh. 91 was allowed and thereby permission to file evidence affidavit was granted on 10-05-2024 subject to condition that cost of Rs. 1500/- be paid to defendants. Since then, plaintiff has not taken any step. On 17-06-2025 by passing order below Exh. 01 it was directed to the plaintiff to take appropriate steps. Subsequently, on 03-10-2025 matter was kept for dismissal. On 27-01-2026, 20-04-2026, plaintiffs have not taken any steps. Today, instead of taking substantive steps, application for adjournment has been presented. In the interest of justice while considering the fact that matter is relating to valuable rights of the parties in respect of immovable property, the present application is allowed as a very last chance. Parties to be take note that on failure to proceed effectively, matter will be dismissed on next date.
