

ORDER BELOW EXH.1 IN CRI.M.A. NO.46/2026.

Ganesh Rajendra Kale.

Vs.

State of Maharashtra.

This is an application u/s. 503 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 filed by applicant Ganesh Rajendra Kale for return of the Oppo Reno14 mobile having its IMEI No. 860968076581559, which was seized in connection with Crime No. 116/2026 pertaining to the offence punishable u/s. 12(A) of The Maharashtra Prevention of Gambling Act, registered with police station, Washi.

2. Heard, Ld. counsel for applicant Miss. R. M. Kamble and Ld. A.P.P. Shri. S.R. Sayyad for the State. Gone through the documents on record.

3. The investigating Officer (I.O.) has filed his say vide Exh.5, stating that if application is allowed, possibility of selling or altering it cannot be ruled out. Hence, he prayed for rejection of the application. Ld. A.P.P. Mr. S.R. Sayyad has filed his say on overleaf of the present application, stating that if application is allowed, accused will tampering with the muddemal. The seized muddemal is required for identification during the trial. With this, he has prayed to reject the application.

4. At the outset, it is necessary to mention here that in case of Sunderbhai Ambalal Desai Versus State of Gujarat (cited supra), the Honorable Apex Court has considered the situation that has emerged due to reluctance or non-exercise of powers vested with subordinate Courts under Sec. 451 and 457 of the Criminal Procedure Code resulting into huge property lying at Police Stations as well as Courts. To overcome such situation, the Honorable Apex Court has issued detail guidelines as to various types of properties which are seized and lying at Police Station or Courts occupying sufficient space as well as subject to natural process of decay. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case stated supra has observed that “the powers u/s. 451 Cr.P.C. has to be properly and promptly excised by the Magistrate and seized articles should not be kept for long time at the police station, in any case, for not more than fifteen days to one month.” Thus, while dealing with the present application, I have to keep in the mind the ratio laid down by the Apex Court in the case stated supra.

5. It is evident that the applicant has produced along with list of documents Exh. 4/3 the verified copy of purchase receipt of seized mobile. Upon perusal of said receipt, it is evident that the applicant is owner of seized mobile. To my mind, the possibility of causing damage to seized mobile cannot be ruled out if kept lying in the police station. Obviously, the trial would not be concluded in near future. In the above circumstances, I have no hesitation to hold that the applicant is entitled to have possession of seized mobile. Thus, for the reasons stated supra, I proceed to pass the following order.

ORDER

- 1) The application is allowed.

- 2) The Investigating Officer is directed to hand over the custody of Oppo Reno14 mobile having its IMEI No. 860968076581559, seized in Cr. No. 116/2026 to the applicant by preparing the detailed proper panchnama.
- 3) The Investigating Officer is further directed to take the photographs of said mobile at the cost of applicant. The said photographs shall be attested by the applicant and counter signed by him.
- 4) The applicant is directed to furnish supurnama of Rs.38,000/- (Rupees Thirty eight only) on stamp of Rs. 200/- in view of Article 35 Schedule-I of the Maharashtra Stamp Act, 1958.
- 5) Applicant shall not transfer, sale, gift or in any manner create third party interest in the said mobile till the conclusion of trial.
- 6) Applicant shall not in any way make any material change in the said mobile which would affect the identification of the same.
- 7) The applicant shall not use the said mobile for the commission of any offence, otherwise this itself be a ground for cancellation of this order.
- 8) The applicant is directed to produce the above said mobile as and when directed by the Court.
- 9) The indemnity bond be executed before the investigating officer as charge sheet is not filed.
- 10) The investigating officer is directed to submit panchanama & photographs of said articles alongwith indemnity bond executed by the applicant in the Court.
