Sir,

The Court fee is correct.

(Reader). 10.08.2026

Present:- Sh. Jasjeet Singh, Adv. counsel for plaintiff

Report of Reader seen. Suit be registered. Notice of the suit be issued to defendants for 25.08.2026 through registered post upon filing PF, copy of plaint etc as well as in ordinary way.

Along with the suit, the plaintiff has also moved an application under Order 39 Rules 1 & 2 read with Section 151 CPC. The learned counsel for plaintiff has submitted that an ex-parte ad-interim injunction may kindly be granted. The application is also supported with an affidavit. From the perusal of the pleadings and the documents placed on record, this court is of the opinion that if no ex-parte ad-interim relief is granted, then plaintiff will suffer loss because from the revenue records placed on file, it appears that both the plaintiff and defendants are sitting in possession over their respective shares of suit property as 'Kaashitkaar'. Since they are all allegedly in possession of their respective shares, interference to the extent of beyond one's share cannot be permitted.

As such, the defendants are hereby restrained from changing the nature of suit property by digging soil & digging pits and from dispossessing the plaintiff, to the extent of share of plaintiff in the suit property illegally and forcibly, except in due course of law till 25.08.2026. Compliance under Order 39 Rule 3 CPC be made within 24 hours failing which the order shall be vacated automatically. Notice of the present application be also served upon the defendants for the date fixed. Dasti summons be given to the plaintiff, if requested, for effecting service upon defendants.
