

COMMON ORDER BELOW EXH.08 AND 09 IN SESSIONS
TRIAL NO.91/2021[CNR NO.MHPA010013282021]
(State Vs. Santosh Jadhav & Ors)

Present application is filed by the accused Abhay Mahajan and Shaikh Rahimoddin to release them on bail on the basis of directions issued by Hon'ble High Power Committee established by Hon'ble Bombay High Court.

2. The accused submitted through application that they may be released on P.R. bond for 45 days. They would follow all the conditions imposed by this Court and conditions given by the State Government in SOP. They would attend the police station after every 30 days and after 45 days he would appear before the Court to surrender himself.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor submitted that the offence is very serious. If this applicants are released on bail, there are chances that they would no return in the Court. Hence, application may be dismissed.

4. On perusal of record, it finds that the matter received to this Court on 03/05/2021. On 13/05/2021 accused No.4 filed application for bail. But he did not appear on 20/05/2021 to submit his argument. After the decision of bail application, this Court would proceed immediately to conduct the trial. It shows that this Court is not causing delay to the matter.

5. It is clear from the record that the charges levelled against the accused are offences under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code. Hon'ble High Power Committee gave directions that while granting the bail nature of offence, severity of offence is required to be considered. If this accused is released on bail, there are chances that he may put pressure on the witnesses or there is life threat to the witnesses. The informant is brother of deceased. It is clear from the record that the charges levelled against the accused are that in order to get insurance money, these accused committed murder of deceased. The charges levelled against the accused are very serious. Therefore, application is not entitled to be allowed.
