RCS No.167/2007
Shivraj Vs Vimalbai
(Order Below Exh.1)

Regular Civil Suit No.167/2007
Order below Exh.1

Both the parties and their Ld.Counsel absent when called out. Perused record and roznama. This is 19 years old case. In this case on 25/04/2024 an application at Exh.57 came to be rejected. Thereafter this case has been listed for final argument of both the parties. Thereafter on 11/07/2024 plaintiff filed certain documents along with Exh.270. Thereafter the plaintiff submitted that he preferred appeal against the order passed below Exh.257. Since the date of passing the order below Exh.257, this case has been lingering for the filing of documents about the stages of the appeal preferred before the Hon'ble High Court, Bombay. It is not clear whether any stay order has been passed in this case. In view of this situation, it has become extremely difficult to proceed further in this case. Hence, the plaintiff is hereby directed to submit papers on next date showing the present status of the appeal pending before the Hon'ble High Court, Bombay against the order passed below Exh.257 and regarding the order of stay if any. On failure to submit such documents both the parties are directed to proceed further with the final argument in this case. Both the parties to take note of the direction and comply accordingly.
