

Order Passed below Exh-191 in RCS No 167/2007
Shivraj Vs. Vimalbai & others.

1. This an application filed by the defendant no. 3 and 5 for review the order dated 04.07.2016 passed on Exh-182. It is submitted therein that, the enquiry in respect of Exh-182 may kindly be made and order passed on Exh-182 may kindly be reviewed.

2. In reply, it is submitted that in the instant application it is not mentioned as to what is an error on the face of order passed on Exh- 182. No proper reasons are mentioned in the application. Therefore, the instant application is liable to be rejected.

3. Perused application and say scribed over it. The plaintiff and defendant no. 1, 2, 4 and 5 and their learned advocates are absent in spite of their repeated calls till 3.35 p.m.. Heard learned advocate for defendant no.3

4. In case of review of order the aggrieved party has to show as to what error has been committed by the court while passing the said order on the face of record. So, also the aggrieved party has to show as to whether any new facts or evidence is there on record of the passing of said order which is to be reviewed. Perusal of record goes to show that, as there is no any error apparent on the face of record, so, also as no any new fact or evidence is there on record which needs to be considered, and as there is no any order from the Hon'ble Appellate Court the instant application is liable to be rejected as per final order. As such, final order is passed as follows-

Order

1. The instant application at Exh- 191 stands rejected in the interest of justice in order to avoid any further delay in the disposal of more than eight year suit.

Sd/-

Date:- 22.06.2017.

(P.P. Deshmukh)
Civil Judge, Jr. Division,
Gangakhed.