R.C.S. No.08/2025
Wasiya Begum & Ors. Vs.
Taimurbeg & Ors.

Order Below Exh.22
(Passed on 02nd June, 2025)

1. Perused the application, reply (Exh.29), documents and entire case record.
2. Heard both sides.
3. It is not disputed that Shaha Alam Beg was owner of suit property. The property owned by a person during his lifetime is his exclusive property under Muslim Law. Defendants have raised various contentions such as non-joinder of necessary party, opening of inheritance and limitation, non-inclusion of total property, existence of gift-deed and other documents and long standing mutation entries. The plaintiffs have prayed for status-quo. But, plaintiffs have also filed application below Exh.05 for temporary injunction. Both applications are similar in nature and for same reliefs. Defendants have filed their written statement and reply to Exh.05. Therefore, it would be just and proper to decide both applications together after hearing both sides on Exh.05. Thus, I hereby pass the following order.

Order

1. The application below Exh.22 will be decided alongwith application below Exh.05.
2. Both parties shall make hearing on Exh.05.
3. Both parties to take note of this order.
