

SCC No. 172/17
PDCC Bank -Vs- Bhagirath

ORDER BELOW EXH.1

1] Read complaint and statement of complainant on oath supported with the documents filed on record. It appears from the documents that the cheque issued by accused has been dishonored and thereafter the notice was issued by complainant, but the accused failed to pay the cheque amount within fifteen days from the date of knowledge of notice. Therefore, there is sufficient ground to proceed with the present complaint as prima-facie offence punishable under section 138 of N.I. Act is made out against accused. Hence, issue summons against accused on payment of process fee within three days.
