	Najima Vs. Gajanan & Ors.

ORDER PASSED BELOW EXH. NO. 1

The record shows that the case is fixed for dismissal order. The complainant has not filed any application nor proceeded for verification. The complainant absent since long and failed to take effective steps. Therefore, on 27/3/2026 order was passed on Exh.1 and the matter was put up for dismissal order. It is specifically directed to the complainant to proceed in the present matter effectively unless necessary order would be pass. In spite of giving opportunities, the complainant failed to take steps and to proceed effectively in present matter. This conduct of the complainant is shows that he is lost his interest or not interested to proceed with the case. Therefore, no purpose would be served by keeping matter pending. Today also, the complainant absent and not taking any steps. Considering above discussion, it is not just to adjourn the case and keep the matter pending without fruitful purpose. Hence, I proceed to pass following order.

:: ORDER ::

The complaint is dismissed and the accused are acquitted of the offence punishable under Section 323, 504, 506 r/w. 34 of the Indian Penal Code vide section 256 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
