Sumegh Sunil Joshi

ORDER BELOW EXH.5

1] This is the application filed by accused-applicant Sumegh Sunil Joshi for regular bail under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 in connection with CR No. 44/2022 registered with Hinjewadi police station for the offences punishable under Sections 406, 420 r.w. 34 of IPC and Section 3 of MPID Act.

2] It is contended that accused applicant came to be arrested on 02.02.2022, remanded to MCR on 11.02.2022 and presently he is under trial prisoner in Yerwada Jail. As mentioned in the application it is the prosecution case that informant Meghansingh Amarsingh Patil filed a complaint that he was introduced with accused-applicant in 2018, thereafter, accused-applicant was giving information to informant that he has invested money in share market and if the informant wants to invest his money in share market, he will get double returns in a month. It is further contended that on assurance by accused-applicant the informant from time to time since March 2019 to November 2019 had given total amount of Rs.53,09,994/- out of which amount of Rs.25.00 lakhs was given in cash and Rs.28,09,994/- by transfer but when informant requested his money back, the accused failed to repay the same, therefore, informant lodged report with police and First Information Report Cr. No. 44/2022 came to be registered against the accused-applicant.

3] It is further contended that applicant is a person who has invested his money in share market and no further role has been attributed by him in the present crime. It is contended that to put a pressure on the accused-applicant to refund the money of informant, he was arrested by police, after completion of investigation, police have filed charge-sheet against the accused-applicant, nothing is remained to investigate, he has not committed any crime, he has been falsely implicated in the present crime merely in order to malign his reputation and image in the society. It is further contended that offence under Section 3 of MPID Act is not applicable, further more entire offence is based on documents and almost all the papers concerning to present accused-applicant are already in the custody of police and have been scrutinized by the Investigating Officer and submitted it with charge-sheet. It is further contended that nothing needs to be interrogated as charge-sheet has been filed and accused-applicant is remanded to MCR, therefore, question of custodial interrogation does not arise, nothing is remained to be investigated, further granting bail at this stage will not adversely affect the investigation. It is further contended that applicant is ready to co-operate the investigating agency, his physical custody is not warranted, he is law abiding citizen belonging to reputed family, he has no criminal antecedents, he will not tamper with the investigation, he will not influence any witness and he is ready to abide by the conditions put by the court while allowing application. With all these contentions accused-applicant prayed to allow the application.

4] Investigating Officer and learned APP have resisted the application by filing say vide Exh.8 contending that accused-applicant induced informant to invest in share market assuring him that within 15 days or a month he will get 10 to 20 % returns or double the amount invested gained faith and cheated informant to the tune of Rs.53,09,994/- and even after maturity period did not give any return or invested amount to the informant back. It is further contended that Investigating Officer has to investigate that exactly where the amount invested by the informant was used by the accused-applicant without giving any returns to him cheated the informant. With all these contentions prayed to reject the application.

5] Heard applicant's advocate Mr. Ghuge and learned APP Mr. Wadekar. It is pertinent to note here that on perusal of record it is noticed that vide pursis Exh.14 accused-applicant Sumegh Joshi has contended that he is ready to deposit Rs.10.00 lakhs in the court and he is ready to repay the remaining amount within 24 months period, hence, prayed to give him said permission.

6] I have given serious consideration to the submissions. Accused applicant is behind bars for about 1 year and 9 months, hence, considering the nature of offence and considering the pursis filed on record, I find that accused-applicant can be released on bail with the direction that out of total amount of alleged fraud, which is of Rs.53,09,994/-, accused shall deposit amount of Rs.27.00 lakhs prior to his release on bail and he shall deposit remaining amount of Rs.27.00 lakhs in 9 months in equal monthly installments of Rs.3.00 lakhs each after his release on bail. Hence, I proceed to pass following order -

ORDER
