

Cri. Bail Application No.2892/2026

Prem Dilip Jadhav

Vs

State of Maharashtra

ORDER BELOW EXH.01

(Delivered on this 02nd day of July, 2026)

The present application is filed by applicant/accused under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for regular bail in respect of C. R. No.147/2026 registered with Wanwadi Police Station for the offence punishable under Section 118(1), 118(2), 352, 351(2)(3) r/w 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, Section 4 r/w 25 of Arms Act, Section 37(1) r/w 135 of Maharashtra Police Act and Section 3, 7 of Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 2013.

2. The applicant contended that, he is permanently residing at the address mentioned in the cause title of the application. He has not committed any offence. False offence is lodged against him.

3. He further contended that, on 11.04.2026 the informant had lodged report alleging therein that he had gone to bring the tablets of his mother on medical shop at Shinde Wasti. At that time, the applicant and his friend came near him and said him why he is looking in anger towards him. By saying so they raised dispute with him. The applicant by possessing sharp weapon came near him. He tried to give him understanding. He assaulted by said sharp weapon on his hand and injured him. Thereafter, his friend and he assaulted him by fist and blows and abused him. Thereafter, the friend of applicant assaulted him on his back. He told the applicant to assault him. They threatened him and thereafter went from there on their motorcycle.

4. The applicant further contended that, he is arrested on 12.04.2026. The Investigation Officer had interrogated him. The said fact shows that, nothing is to be recovered or discovered at his instance. He is 19 years old. He does not have any criminal antecedents. He prayed that, he may be released on regular bail.

5. Learned APP gave his say. He contended that, the offence is serious in nature. The applicant had assaulted the informant by sharp weapon. The informant had sustained grievous injury. There are eye witness to the incident. The applicant and informant reside in the same vicinity. Therefore, if the applicant is released on anticipatory bail there are chances that he may pressurize the witnesses and tamper the evidence of prosecution. He prayed that the application be rejected.

6. The informant appeared through his learned Advocate. The informant had not filed his say. Therefore, the application is heard without the say of applicant.

7. Heard learned Advocates appearing for parties.

8. On perusal of material available on record it appears that, on 11.04.2026 the informant had lodged report contending therein that he had gone to bring the tablets of his mother on medical shop at Shinde Wasti. At that time, the applicant and his friend came near him and said him why he is looking in anger towards him. By saying so they raised dispute with him. The applicant by possessing sharp weapon came near him. He tried to give him understanding. He assaulted by said sharp weapon on his hand and injured him. Thereafter, his friend and he assaulted him by fist and blows and abused him. Thereafter, the friend of applicant assaulted him on his back. He told the applicant to assault him. They threatened him and thereafter went from there on their motorcycle.

9. The material available on record shows that, the Investigation Officer had recovered the weapon at the instance of applicant. The said fact shows that, nothing is to be recovered or discovered at the instance of applicant. The applicant is 19 years old. The say filed by the Investigation Officer shows that, the applicant is not having any criminal antecedents. The co-accused is also released on bail. Therefore, taking into consideration all the above facts, in my opinion, the applicant can be released on regular bail by putting appropriate conditions for his appearance at trial. Accordingly, I proceed to pass following order :-
