

: Common Order below Exh. 01 and 04 :
(Date :- 15/06/2026)

Perused the application, allegations made in the First Information Report, and the documents annexed to the main petition. Heard the learned counsel for the applicant, who submitted that the applicant is innocent and has no nexus with the alleged offence relating to "Blue Diamond Relaxo Spa". According to learned counsel, the applicant's name appears only by virtue of the lease agreement in respect of Shop No. 101, S. No. 25/1, Bhujbal Vasti, Wakad, Pune being executed in his name. Apprehending arrest in the present crime, the applicant has therefore filed the present application seeking ad-interim anticipatory bail.

2. Perusal of the record shows that the present Crime was registered on the basis of a report lodged by Santosh Suryakant Mhaske, Police Hawaldar, B.C. No. 3194. It is alleged therein that during a raid conducted by the raiding party at "Blue Diamond Relaxo Spa", two girls, (whose identities have not been disclosed), were found. It is further alleged that the raiding party, acting through dummy customers, paid Rs. 2,000/- during the said raid.

3. Prima facie, the lease agreement in respect of the subject premises stands in the name of the present applicant and the said spa centre was being run from the said shop.

4. In view thereof, this Court deems it fit and proper to hear the other side before passing any order on the bail application. Hence, issue show cause notice to the Investigating Officer and call for his say. Returnable on 20.06.2026.

5. In terms of the above, the present application, Exhibit 4, stands disposed of.
