

PWDVA Appl. No.45/2025

Nilam Yogesh Korde Before Marriage Nilam Suresh Salunke & Anr. Vs
Yogesh Balasaheb Korde & Ors.

Order on application seeking setting aside order to proceed without say

The respondents have preferred to file an application to set aside order to proceed without say.

2. Present is a proceeding under Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005. The PWDVA requires the Court to decide applications within certain time-frame. Considering time-frame provided in the light of right to behave in adversarial system, I am of the opinion that order to proceed without say shall be set aside with practical cost. Considering date of first appearance of the respondent and date of present application, I pass order.

ORDER

The application is allowed, order to the extent to proceed without say of the respondent on interim application is set aside subject to cost of Rs.10,000/-.
