

ORDER PASSED BELOW COMPLAINT (EXH.1)

Perused the complaint. The accused Dinesh Jagannath Parekar is resident of Nashik. Thus, the accused is residing at a place beyond the area in which this court exercises jurisdiction. The Hon'ble Principle District & Session Judge Pune vide letter dated 28.01.2022 has circulated circular No.Rule/P1605/2022, issued by the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature Appellate site, Bombay dated 27.01.2022. Vide clause No.2 of that circular, there requires an inquiry by the Magistrate under section 202 of Cr.P.C. (earlier section) now 225(1) of B.N.S.S., where accused are resident of the area beyond the territorial jurisdiction of the court where complaint is presented. Therefore, issuance of process against the accused are postponed under section 225 (1) of B.N.S.S. Instead of ordering police to carry investigation, considering the nature of the offence, I find it suitable to inquire into the case myself under section 225 (1) of B.N.S.S. for the purpose of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused. Therefore, for the purpose of inquiry under section 225 (1) of B.N.S.S., I pass the following order:

:: ORDER ::

1. The complainant do submit his affidavit in support of his case.
2. The complainant shall also file affidavit(s), of witnesses, if any, otherwise, the complainant shall mention in his above mentioned affidavit that there is no witness to the transaction between the complainant and accused.
3. The complainant shall also submit all documentary evidence on record declaring in his above mentioned affidavit that there is no documentary evidence other than the documentary evidence the complainant has already produced on record.

Place: Pimpri, Pune.
Date : 11.03.2025

(M.G.More)
Jt. J.M.(FC), Pimpri, Pune.