Sagar Kate & Ors. Vs. Chhatrapati Sambhaji Sahakari
Pathsanstha

ORDER BELOW EXH. 13
(CNR NO. MHPU140023662025)

Respondent is a Co-operative Society which appeared today through representative and has sought time to file reply. Ld. Advocate for revision petitioners submitted that the matter is kept before the Ld Trial Court for appearance on summons in two days, and therefore, it is necessary to pass interim stay order in view of number of petitioners being 20 including women, and the harassment being caused to them. He made submissions regarding the civil nature of the dispute which went upto Hon'ble Supreme Court, and order of Hon'ble Bombay High Court in favour of petitioners therein. He further referred to the order of Registrar of Co-operative Society. The representative for respondent so present submits that Ld. Advocate for the respondent will argue on the merits of the application, and time may be granted to the respondent to file say on stay application.

2] In such circumstances, time to file say on stay application at Exh.5 is granted to respondent, and till filing say by respondent, the order passed by Ld. Trial Court shall stand stayed. Inform Ld. Trial Court, accordingly.
