68870477 - DL1GD2731
07.05.2026

Today Ld Presiding Officer is working as Duty JMFC & Reader of this Court is on leave today.

Present : Ld. APP for State.

Adv. Saheen Sharma on behalf of the violator is present through VC.

Report received back from the concerned circle.

Perused

Perusal of the same reveals that left turn was free and therefore, present challan has been wrongly issued.

The cognizance of the offence is already taken by the Virtual Court. A fine was proposed for summary disposal of case as per section 208 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. The violator has exercised option to contest the challan on web portal of virtual traffic courts and the challan is transferred to this court for further adjudication as per law.

It is prayed on behalf of the violator that an opportunity may be given to him to repent and reform and he submits that he/she shall carefully follow the traffic rules in future. It is further submitted that he understands the consequences and wants to plead guilty for the offence u/s 184 of the Motors Vehicle Act 1988.

Heard. Considered.

In the considered view of this Court, violator reserves an opportunity to repent and reform. Considering the nature of the offense, plea of guilt of the violator and genuine urge on his/her part to repent and reform, the violator is admonished with respect to the above mentioned offence u/s 184 of the Motors Vehicle Act 1988.

Accordingly, the challan stands disposed off.

Original documents, if any, with the Traffic Circle be returned to the rightful owner as per rules.
