

ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT – 1
(State Bank of India - Jyoti Vinayak Puneekar Vs. Nana Jalindar Thorat)

1. Perused the record and proceeding. Perused the roznama. It is private complaint for offence punishable under Section 138 of the N.I. Act, 1881.
2. Perusal of roznama and record of the proceeding shows that my learned predecessor has pleased to issue process against the accused on 28/02/2019. However, since long the complainant has not taken any effective steps in order to secure presence of the accused. Therefore, on 02/07/2026 this Court kept present complaint for dismissal order for want of prosecution. Thereafter also the complainant is absent. Matter is more than 5 years old. The complaint is pending in idle condition due to lethargic approach of the complainant. It is nothing but sheer abuse of the process of law.
3. All above conduct of the complainant shows that he has no more interested to proceed further the complaint. Hence, I constrained to pass the following order:

-: ORDER :-

1. Complaint is hereby dismissed for want of prosecution.
2. Proceeding is hereby closed.

Date :- 01/08/2026.
