

1. In the present matter, on 16/02/2026 as per Section 175(3) of BNSS, 2023 submission of Daund Police Officer or P.S.O., Daund P.S. was called out. However, till today at about 04:15 pm Daund P.S.O. failed to submit any submission in respect of alleged offence.
2. Learned advocate for the complainant pressed present application without calling submission of Daund P.S.O..
3. Perused the record and proceeding. Perused the complaint and documents filed on record. Considering the urgency as well as nature of the offence I decided to proceed present complaint without say / submission of Daund P.S.O. on its own merit.
4. Heard Smt.N.V.Jadhav, learned advocate for the complainant. She submitted her argument as per the complaint and she relied upon the documents filed along with list Exh.3.
5. By filing present application cum complaint, the complainant is seeking investigation under Section 175(3) of BNSS, 2023 for offence punishable under Sections 118(1), 115(2), 333, 303(2), 352, 351(2) & (3) r.w. 3(5) of BNS, 2023.
6. It appears that the complainant has made written complaint to PSO, Daund Police Station, DySP, Daund as well as to the Superintendent of Police, Pune. However, considering the allegations in the complaint, in my humble opinion police investigation is not required as the complainant has all his evidence in his hand rather, it would be appropriate to examine the complainant and his witnesses as per Section 223 of BNSS, 2023 instead of sending the case to police under Section 175(3) of BNSS, 2023. Hence, I proceed to pass the following order :

ORDER

The prayer for sending complaint under Section 175(3) of BNSS, 2023 for investigation is hereby rejected and matter be kept for examination of the complainant and his witnesses, if any under Section 223 of BNSS, 2023.

Place : Daund.
Date : 18/03/2026.
