Mallikarjun Hanumanta Kalapnur Vs. Manjula Narendra Waipalli

ORDER BELOW EXH.1.

(Dated : 22/07/2026)

Called the complainant is absent and their Ld. Advocate Shri. R. R. Bodkhe is present. The complainant has been absent for a long time. The record shows that on 23/09/2025, 17/12/2025, 07/05/2026, 06/06/2026 and 07/07/2026 the matter was kept for dismissal orders. Since then, the complainant has remained absent. It appears that the complainant has been continuously absent from the proceedings. The matter is posted for steps. However, the complainant failed to take appropriate steps to secure the presence of the accused therefore, the accused is absent in the present case. The matter has been lying without any steps being taken for a long period. Despite several opportunities, the complainant failed to take appropriate steps in the case. The last proceeding in the present case was conducted in the year 2024. The complainant filed the last application on 26/09/2024, which shows that the complainant had knowledge of the proceedings. However, thereafter, he has remained continuously absent from the case. No useful purpose would be served by keeping the matter on board in the absence of the complainant and without any steps being taken. The matter appears to have been pending for steps by the complainant. There is no document on record to show that the matter has been stayed. Therefore, in the above facts and circumstances, the matter is dismissed in default for want of steps and is disposed of accordingly.
