ORDER BELOW EXH.7

1. By filing present application both accused namely 1) Rohit @ Pilya Pravin Pawar, 2) Aayshyam Vilas Bhosale are seeking bail vide Section 480 of BNSS, 2023. By filing say overleaf of the application learned APP has taken strong objection to the bail application.
2. Heard, Mr.R.M.Kambale, learned advocate for both the accused and learned special APP Smt.K.B.Bhosale for the State. They have submitted their arguments as per the application and say thereon.
3. Mr.R.M.Kambale, learned advocate for both the accused submitted that in the present matter since their arrest both the accused are in judicial custody. He further submitted that both the accused are innocent and they are not at all involved in the alleged crime and they are arrested merely upon suspicion. The police has completed the investigation and submitted charge-sheet before the Court. Both accused are only bread earner of their family. Both accused are resident of Dist. Pune. Both accused are ready to abide conditions, if any, imposed by this Court while enlarging them on bail. Hence, he prayed to allow the application.
4. On the other hand, learned special APP by filing say overleaf of the application submitted that alleged offence is serious and non-bailable. She further submitted both the accused are habitual offender and they may put pressure upon the witnesses as well as they will be absconded if released on bail. Hence, she prayed for rejection of bail application.

5. Perused the bail application and say thereon. Perused the FIR and entire charge-sheet.

6. Perusal of the record and proceeding of the present case, it appears that since 10/02/2025 till today the accused are in judicial custody. Police has submitted charge-sheet against both the accused. Investigation is completed. Therefore, considering the fact that both accused are ready to furnish solvent surety, there is no good ground to deny bail to them. In my humble opinion, no purpose will be served by keeping both the accused behind the bars any more. But certainly while releasing present accused on bail some conditions required to be imposed upon them. Hence, I proceed to pass the following order:
