CNR.NO. MHPU200015962016

State of Maharashtra Vs. Shivaji Jadhav and Ors.

1. Perused the record and proceeding. It is evident from record that the matter is posted for further evidence of the prosecution. It also appears that the prosecution has examined seven witnesses. It is evident from record that the Investigating Officer has repeatedly issued summons. However, he has failed to remain present in the Court. The Investigating Officer has not made an application for evidence through Video Conferencing. Despite of service of summons vide report below Exh. 37, the Investigating Officer does not remain present for evidence. The prosecution has failed to secure presence of the further witnesses despite of sufficient opportunity.

2. It appears that the matter is old more than five years. Therefore, it is required to be disposed as expeditiously as possible. The speedy trial is right of the accused. Under such circumstances, there is no justifiable reason to adjourn the hearing without effective steps taken by the prosecution.
