

ORDER BELOW EXH. 1

Record and proceeding reveals that both the parties tendered their final argument on 08/05/2024. Thereafter, matter was kept for order on 10/05/2024. However, on 09/05/2024 the Ld. Advocate for applicant filed an application stating therein that he wants file transfer application in view of section 24 of C.P.C. to Hon'ble Principal District Judge, Pune and sought adjournment. Therefore, on the fixed date this Court has not passed any order and waited steps at the instance of applicant as sought. Record further shows that since 09/05/2024 there are three dates and total four months time given to applicant, however, applicant fails to take appropriate steps. Conduct and approach of the applicant as such reflects he wants to prolong or drag matter unnecessary for uncertain period. Instead giving more than sufficient time to applicant since 10/05/2024 till date, neither applicant nor his Ld. Advocate even appeared before the Court and reported to Court regarding application Exh. 23. The conduct of the applicant not appears to be proper. Not only this, but the applicant issued notice to respondent no. 3 by RPAD and the said notice returned as un-served on 06/04/2024. Instead of that neither applicant nor his Ld. Advocate appears to be taken appropriate steps till date pursuing matter in proper way. Lukewarm approach of the applicant reflects either he is not interested to pursue with this matter or he deliberately wants to prolong matter. Such conduct and approach need to be depreciated by passing an appropriate order. Today, also neither applicant nor his Ld. Advocate present and taken any appropriate steps in the matter. Progress of the matter stand still because of non approaching and taking appropriate steps at the instance of the applicant. In the circumstances as above no purpose would be served to keep pending application on record as it is. Hence, matter is kept for passing an appropriate order on next date i.e. 05/10/2024.
