

ORDER BELOW EXH. 09 IN SPECIAL CASE NO. 10/2019
(CNR No. MHPU21-001808-2019)

This is an application filed by the application for renewal of passport.

2. According to applicant he is a passport holder having passport no. J-8931151. The passport expired on 04/09/2021. The applicant is desirous to go to aboard, therefore, it is necessary to apply for renewal of passport with the passport authority. In the present case the applicant is arrayed as an accused. Therefore, without prior permission from this Court passport authority will not allow him to renew his passport. No prejudice will be cause to prosecution if the present application is allowed as sought for.

3. This application was strongly opposed by the prosecution vide reply on its overleaf of the application. According to prosecution the applicant has committed serious offence. In case, the application is allowed probability of flee away from the Court of justice may not be ruled out. The prosecution therefore prayed for rejection of the application.

4. Heard both the sides at the length of considerable time. I have bestowed my best consideration to their respectful submission.

5. Upon perusal of the application, record and proceeding, it indicates that the present applicant is arrayed as an accused in the present case. The applicant only prayed for renewal of the passport as it is expired. Considering the prayer of the applicant so far as regards renewal of passport, in my considered opinion, there is no flight risk at the instance of the applicant. It appears that since from bail till date the applicant not appears to be misused his liberty. In the circumstances as above, no prejudice will be caused to prosecution, if the present application is considered subject certain conditions. Hence, the following would meet the ends of justice.
