

Nanda Dadabhau Walse

Vs

Varsha Sandip Walse and Ors.

ORDER BELOW DELAY APPLICATION DATED 07/11/2025

This application filed by respondent No.1 for condoning delay for filing say to the main application.

2. Heard both sides. Considered their submission.
3. The respondent No.1 submitted that applicant has filed the present application under Domestic Violence Act, 2005. He further submitted on 01/07/2025 the summon/notice was served to her. Due to delay in obtaining necessary document to file say, she could not file her say within limitation. There is 39 days delay in filing say to the main application. She further submitted that for deciding matter on merit it is necessary to condone the delay for filing her say. If the application is rejected then respondent will suffer irreparable loss. Hence, she prayed to allow the applications.
4. The applicant has strongly opposed the application and argued that said application of respondent is false and frivolous. There was not sufficient reasons in the application. Respondent intentionally delaying the matter. If the court is of the opinion that the application is allowed then costs of Rs.5,000/- may be imposed.
5. Perused the application and say filled by the applicant.
6. The advocate for the respondent has submitted that due to delay in obtaining necessary document to file say, respondent No.1 could not file her say within limitation. This reason seems to be genuine. Considering the principle that no one should be unheard, an opportunity must be given to the respondents to file their say to decide the application on merit. Further considering the delay in filing the present applications, I am of the opinion that cost shall be imposed. Hence, the following order is passed.

ORDER

- 1) Application is allowed subject to cost of Rs.200/-.
- 2) The delay of 39 days in filing say is condoned.
- 3) After payment of costs tot he applicant the say of respondent No.1 be read and recorded.
