ORDER BELOW EXH. 38

1. The advocate for accused has filed this application for setting aside No cross order passed against accused on 27/02/2026 at Exh.20.
2. Heard both sides. Considered their submissions.
3. The Ld. advocate for accused submitted that on 27/02/2026 the matter was listed for cross-examination of the complainant. On the said date due to unavailability of essential document the accused was not present before court and the advocate for accused could not cross examined the complainant. He further submitted that if the said order is not set aside the accused will suffer irreparable loss. If the order is set aside no prejudice will cause to the complainant. In the interest of justice, opportunity kindly be granted to the accused. Hence, prayed to allow the application.
4. The Ld. advocate for the complainant filed his say and submitted that in the present case the accused has filed several exemption applications to prolong the case. Ample opportunity has been given to accused. Accused is intentionally delaying the case. Hence, prayed to reject the application with costs.
5. Perused record. It appears from that on 27/02/2026 the No cross order was passed against accused. The cross examination is preliminary defense of the accused, where puts forth his version of events. Therefore, it is necessary for deciding the case on merit.

6. If the application is rejected, the accused will not get the opportunity to put his case on record. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case in hand, and the reasons mentioned above, also in order to give fair opportunity of hearing, application needs to be allowed. If the application is allowed no prejudice will cause to the complainant in order to adjudicate the matter on merit. It is necessary to grant an opportunity to the accused for cross-examination of complainant in the interest of justice. It is quite clear and certain that delay has caused by accused in filing present application, therefore, in such circumstances complainant needs to be compensated in terms of costs. The cost will suffice the purpose of justice. Hence, following order is passed.
