

ORDER PASSED BELOW AT EXHIBIT 15.

This is an application filed by non-applicant for issuance of direction to produce on record articles, documents, gold and cash.

02. It is submitted by the non-applicant that, the applicant has left his house on 13/08/2024 and at that time taken away aforesaid articles, gold etc. with her. It is possessed by her. Hence, prayed for allow this application and necessary directions may kindly be issued.

03. Say was called from the applicant wherein she has denied the allegations levelled against her in toto it is mentioned that, the applicant has not possessed any articles contended by the non-applicant. Thus, prayed for rejection of the application.

04. Heard Ld. Advocate appearing for both sides at length. First of all the application has not supported with affidavit and till today the non-applicant has not filed on record his assets and liabilities affidavit and therefore, the matter could not proceed further on hearing of interim maintenance application. The non-applicant has prayed for production of articles possessed by the applicant which is owned by him. However, no documentary evidence has filed on record which takes me through the applicant has possessed the articles, gold and cash as contended by the non-applicant. Except bare words nothing has filed on record. The evidence of both sides has yet to be recorded and without recording evidence at initial stage it would not just and proper, in absence of any evidence, to issue direction to produced articles. Thus, in view of aforesaid observation the application is devoid of merit. Hence, it is rejected.
