

ORDER BELOW EXH.74

1. The present application is filed by plaintiff under Order V Rule 20 of Code of Civil Procedure.

2. The plaintiff avers that defendant no. 6,7 and 8 are avoiding service of summons. The summons has returned with the remark that the defendant no. 6,7 and 8 are not residing on the given address. The new address of the defendants is not known to the plaintiff. Therefore the plaintiff prayed that the summons be served on defendant no. 6,7 and 8 by publishing it in daily news paper 'Dainik Krushival'. Hence, he prayed to allow the application.

3. Perused application, affidavit and proceedings. The suit summons were sent to the defendants by R.P.A.D. The envelop has returned to the court with the remark 'left addresses'. Therefore, the summons remained unserved. The application is supported by an affidavit. Therefore, it seems that defendant no.6,7and 8 are purposely avoiding service of summons. Hence, summons remained unserved.

4. Satisfactory reasons are brought on record to believe that, the said defendant no.6,7 and 8 could not be served in the ordinary way. Hence, I pass the following order:

ORDER

1. The application is allowed.

CNR No. MHRG08-001322-2018
