

ORDER BELOW EXH.1

(Arun Bhaskar Gangal Vs. Ramdas Krushnarao Tulshibagwale and Ors.)

Perused the application. Perused record of the case. From record it appears that, the applicant has filed this application praying for giving directions to police as contemplated under Sec.156(3) of Code of Criminal Procedure. On 04/11/2023 that prayer of the applicant is rejected by the Court by passing order below exh.1. As per order dated 04/11/2023, the matter is kept for verification of the complainant as per Sec.200 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. On 04/11/2023 the verification of the complainant was recorded. I have gone through the main application, verification and documents filed along with it. Heard Learned Advocate for the complainant.

2. It appears from the complaint and statement of verification recorded under Section 200 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The police inquiry is necessary in the said complaint. The complainant has filed on record various documents. I have also perused the documents filed by the complainant on record. It reveals that, the accused residing beyond the jurisdiction of this court. As the allegations made in the complaint against the accused under section 420, 467, 468, 471 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code. These allegations are serious in nature as per the mandate of section 202 of the Cr.PC. It is necessary to call inquiry report of police machinery for proceeding further against accused. So considering the allegation made in the complaint and accused residing beyond jurisdiction of this court, I am of the opinion that it is necessary to get the inquiry carry out by the police to receive the report. It would, therefore, be proper to direct the police officer to inquire the allegations made in the complaint and to file report vide section 202 of the Cr.PC.. In the result, the following order.

ORDER
