

:: ORDER BELOW EXH.01::

- 1) Present case is listed for appearance of respondent no.1.
- 2) In the present case, repeated attempts were made to serve notice upon respondent no.1 through ordinary process. However, the same could not be affected.
- 3) As per the title of the present application and as per the reports, respondent no.1 is residing outside of India. Respondent no.2 & 3 who are the mother and brother of respondent no.1 appeared before the court and are duly served.
- 4) Today, applicant has placed on record an affidavit wherein applicant has stated that, the copy of present application has been forwarded to respondent no.1 on his WhatsApp number. The said mode of service, considering the circumstances, appears to be a valid intimation. In addition, since respondent no.2 & 3 have appeared before the court, it can be reasonably inferred that, respondent no.1 has knowledge of present proceeding through them.
- 5) Despite said knowledge, respondent no.1 has neither appeared before the court nor made any representation. Hence, this court is satisfied that, respondent no.1 is deliberately avoiding the proceedings. Consequently, I proceed to pass following order.

ORDER

Case shall proceed Ex-parte against respondent no.1

Shrivardhan
Date 09/04/2026

(S. K. Shaikh)
Judicial Magistrate F.C.
Shrivardhan.