

R.C.S. no. 29/2015
Prakash Vs Vishwas

ORDER BELOW EXH. 23

Perused the application and say (Exh.24). Heard both the sides. The plaintiff is seeking permission to add his other family members in order to avoid in further complications in the matter on that point. It is the matter on record, the case is at the preliminary stage of evidence. Moreover, the presence of the proposed parties will be essential for deciding the matter on merit having regard to the nature of litigation. As against this, the defendant will have equal opportunity to establish his case in presence of the proposed parties. Taking into consideration the aforesaid fact, the proposed amendment will be essential for deciding the matter on merit full and finally. Hence, I hold that the proposed addition of party is essential for resolving the real controversy between the parties. Hence, I pass the following order.

ORDER

- 1] The application (Exh. 23) is allowed permitting the plaintiff to add the proposed parties.
- 2] The plaintiff to carry out the amendment accordingly.

Place : Pali
Date : 19-08-2017

Civil Judge J.D. Pali.
19-08-2017