- 5] Ld. Addl. P. P. Shri. Rajendra Yerunkar submitted that, offence is of serious nature. Even though charge-sheet is filed, the applicant is not entitled for bail. If he is released on bail, he would pressurize the prosecution witnesses. Hence, prosecution prayed for rejection of anticipatory bail.
- 6] Perused FIR and documents placed on record. It is alleged that on 06/02/2026 at about 2.00 p.m. informant's husband had gone to medical shop for purchasing medicine for daughter. At that time, applicant entered in the informant's house. He kept his hands on thigh of informant and asked for sexual favour. The informant resisted the applicant. The applicant ran away from there.
