ORDER BELOW EXH. 5

1] The appellant was accused in S.C.C. No.3100/2018. The said case was filed by the respondent/original complainant for the offence punishable under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act. The appellant was convicted and she was sentenced for rigorous imprisonment of one year and to pay compensation of Rs.15,00,000/-. The applicant has moved this appeal against the conviction with an application for suspension of the substantive sentence and order and also for bail.

2] On perusal of record of the case it appears that, execution of sentence passed in S.C.C. No. 3100/2018 was suspended for one month. The accused was directed to furnish P.B. and S.B. of Rs.15,000/-. As per Section 147 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, the appellate Court may order the appellant to deposit such sum which shall be minimum of 20% of fine or compensation awarded by the Trial Court. It is further clarified in the proviso of said section that the amount payable by this Section shall be in addition to any interim compensation paid by the appellant under section 143 A of the Negotiable Instruments Act. As such, 20% amount out of fine/compensation awarded by the learned Trial Court is required to be deposited from the appellant.

Therefore, before suspending the sentence and order, if appellant is directed to deposit 20% amount out of compensation amount, it will serve the interest of justice. Deposit of this amount by the appellant shall be without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the parties in the appeal. However, appellant prayed for time to deposit 20% compensation amount.

3] It is necessary to hear the appeal on merits. However, it will take some time to hear the appeal finally on merits. Therefore, it is necessary and expedient to suspend the execution of sentence and order till further order so as to avoid unwarranted suffering of the appellant. Therefore, the following order is passed.
