

Order below Exh. 66 in Sessions Case No.53/2021
(CNR NO.MHRT 010007422021 )

Read report of Additional PP and say filed by accused over it. Perused case record. Heard Ld. Addl. PP Mr. Salvi for prosecution and Ld. Adv. Mr. Kamble for accused.

2. The prosecution has filed report to issue witness summons to Police Head Constable Mohan Shankar Patil to appear before the Court for leading evidence through Video Conferencing Facility. The prosecution has contended that due to health problem of witness Mr. Mohan Patil, he can not personally attend the Court to record his oral testimony. So, prosecution has prayed to record oral evidence of prosecution witness Mr. Mohan Patil through Video Conferencing by issuing witness summons to him to that effect.

3. The accused has filed his say and prayed to pass necessary order.

4. Considering the fact that witness Police Head Constable Mr. Mohan Shankar Patil is now resident of Kolhapur and due to health problem, he could not attend the Court personally, it is proper to issue witness summons to said witness to attend the Court on Video Conferencing Facility as per the rules laid down by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court. If the oral evidence of said witness is recorded through V.C Facility, then neither party may suffer any prejudice. Hence, it is proper to allow the report of prosecution. Hence, I pass following order:-

ORDER

1. The report is allowed.

2. Issue witness summons to Police Head Constable Mr. Mohan Shankar Patil to attend the Court on next date through Video Conferencing Facility for recording his oral evidence.
