

ORDER BELOW EXH. 24 IN L.A.R. DARKHAST NO.9/2019

(CNR NO: MHRT040006382019)

(Shriram Krusharao Vichare Vs. S.L.A.O.Konkan Railway Ratnagiri & Ors.)

Perused the application and the say. Heard. The learned Public Prosecutor submitted that due to administrative reasons, the Government requires a further period of three months for payment of the decretal amount. Per contra, the learned advocate for the applicant submitted that sufficient opportunities have already been granted and the matter has been pending for the last six years. It is therefore argued that the application deserves to be rejected; and if at all it is to be allowed, only a shorter period may be granted.

On perusal of the record, it appears that adequate opportunities have already been availed by the Government. The reason of administrative compliances for effecting payment is found to be justified. However, granting a further period of three months would not be appropriate. The decretal amount is accruing interest day by day, thereby causing additional burden on the public revenue. It is therefore expected of the Government to comply with the decree expeditiously.

In view of the above, the Government is granted a further period of two months to pay the decretal amount as prayed.
